Batterieproduktion

Concept

Battery-News is a leading service provider for numerous sectors of the industry. Since 2019, the platform has been reporting daily on the latest developments in one of the most important components of electric mobility and the energy transition. Battery-News shares its content through its website, its LinkedIn profile, and its newsletter. In addition to the latest news, the industry service offers an exclusive Battery Atlas with free maps on various topics and sectors from around the battery world as well as an event calendar. „Battery-News“ is a brand of PEM Motion GmbH.

Readers

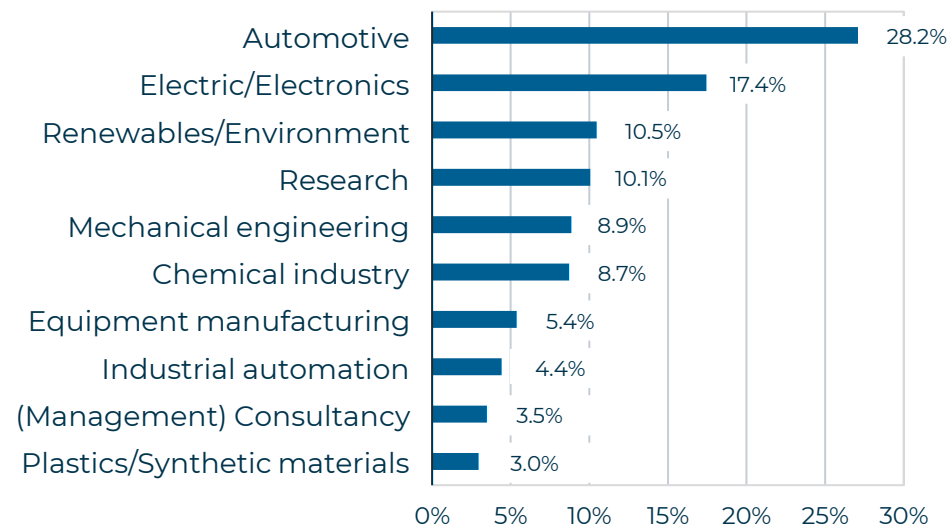

Battery-News reaches battery cell producers and suppliers of the necessary components as well as plant manufacturers and experts from research and politics. Recipients are generally managers and specialists who want to keep an eye on battery developments and appreciate the compact as well as transparent presentation of information in the Battery-News channels.

Start-up companies

Young players under three years of age and without a corporate affiliation have the option of purchasing our start-up package. This rate does not apply to advertorials and advertising partnerships. Please contact us when booking!
